ANNOUNCEMENTS

DAVIS THEATRE

Complete Change of Program Today -Homan's Revue in an Entirely New Show, Also Charlie Chaplin in a Two-reel Comedy.

Homan's Musical Revue seems to have caught the popular fancy again this time judging by the crowded houses that have been bestowed upon houses that have been bestowed upon this popular company at the Davis this week. The revue today and tomorrow will present for the first time in this city the big laughing success, The Devil and Tom Walker. This is the first time that Mr. Homan has ever presented this play to Norwich theatregoers. And this is the first time that the Homan company has ever presented anything of this kind here. The Devil and Tom Walker is a distinct musical comedy with two a distinct musical comedy with two acts, the first act takes place on earth and the second act in Hadies. The plot of the play is taken from the Follies of 1914, the show that made Bert Williams famous. Of course the revue will not stage this play as did the New York and Boston productions but the actual play will be presented, with special scenery and electrical efwects. An entire new list of song and dancing numbers will be presented. Although the Homan Musical Revue holds the reins at the Davis this week it does not mean that Manager Craig is discarding his excellent and the second act in Hadies. ager Craig is discarding his excellent motion picture program. On the con-trary today will be presented Charlie Chaplin, the most popular comedian In the world, in a two-reel comedy called A Night in the Show. This is a regular scream and Charlie does some of the funniest stunts of his ca-reer, so don't miss this picture. An-other feature is Double Crossed, a four-part western drama with Anna Little as the star. On the whole this show cannot be equalled anywhere for the money. Special bargain prices this week. Matinee 10c and 15c; evening 10, 15 and 20c. Special musi-cal program by the Davis concert or-

AT THE AUDITORIUM

The Beloved Vagabond, Feature Picture Today-Three Fine Vaudeville Acts Tomorrow, Friday and Satur

Today will be the last chance to see the Beloved Vagabond, the big six-reel Pathe feature which has been causing so much favorable comment here since Monday. It is taken from the old familiar story of the same name by William J. Locke and is beautifully depicted. Other pictures on today's bill are a two-reel comedy drama entitled Whiffles at the Front, and a single reel side-splitting comedy entitled. Toodles at a Tea Party. For titled Toodles at a Tea Party. For Thursday, Friday and Saturday of Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week the management has booked a corking three-act vaudeville show which will include the following well known specialties: Maestro and company, singing and talking (special scenery), and Gerard, one of the greatest animal and instrumental mimics now playing vaudeville. A very classy picture bill has been ar-ranged for Thursday also.

AT THE COLONIAL.

The big feature at the Colonial to-day is The Spy's Fate, a big Lubin drama in three parts. Another big Star feature for today is Paying the Toll, Knickerbocker drama, in three parts. No Tickee, No Washee and California Scrap Book, Vitagraph comedies, ends today's big bill, Matinee every day 5c; evening 19c. New show every day.

Loomer Opera House.

Loomer Opera house, Willimantic, Barbara Freitchie and Charlie Chaplin Barbara Freitchie and Charlie Chaplin Wodnesday and Thursday. The world's youngest star, Mary Miles Minter, and the stage's oldest actress, Mrs. Thos. W. Wiffen. In Barbara Freitchie, adapted from Whittier's famous poem and Clyde Fich's celebrated stage play. Prominent in the supporting cast is Guy Coombs. One of the special attractions for Wednesday and Thursday is the Barbara Freitchie music score, composed by Jules Jordan, and played by Prof. Helmold's concert orchestra. Members of the G. A. R. and the Spanish War Vets are cordially invited to attend the matinee, Wednesdays, as guests of the management. Friday and Faturday Orrin Johnson and an all star support in The Price and an all star support in The Price of Power, and Fatty Arbuckle and Mabel Normand in He Did and She Didn't. Pref. Helmeld's erchestra at every performance, playing music written especially to fit the picture. Matines 2.30, Adults 10 cents, children 5 cents. Evening 7 and 8.45, Admission 10 cents, reserved seats 15 cents. Children 5 cents.

COOL HEROISM OF

TWO BRITISH AIRMEN One of Them Amputated the Fingers of Another While Under Fire.

British Headquarter, France, April 18.—The cool heroism of two British airmen was demonstrated recently when one of them amputated the fingers of another while under fire.

Lieutenant 8.——— and Captain C. D.—— were being chased by a German acroplane commanded by Lieutenant Immelman, who opened fire on the Englishmen with his machine gun and plerced their gaseline tank with his plerced their gaseline tank with his first shot.

The British aeroplane began to descend in a voiplane, and the German fired again wounding the captain in right arm and smaching two of his fingers. While the captain steered with his left hand, Lieutenant Samputated the two fingers.

The airmen came down to safety but

The airmen came down to safety, but as they had no more gasoline in their tanks they were unable to set fire to their machine which fell into the hands of te Germans.

POETRY

THROUGH PEACE TO LIGHT. I do not ask, O Lord, that life may be A pleasant road; I do not ask that thou should'st take from me Aught of its load, do not ask that flowers should always spring

Beneath my feet;
know too well the poison and the sting
Of things too sweet.

For one thing only, Lord, dear Lord, I plend,
Lead me aright—
Though strength should falter and though heart should bleed—
Through peace to light.

I do not ask, O Lord, that thou should'st shed Full radiance here; Give but a ray of peace, that I may tread Without a fear.

I do not ask my cross to understand, My way to see— Better in darkness just to feel thy hand. And follow thee.

Joy is like rostless day, but peace divine Lake quiet night; Lead me, O Lord, till perfect day shall shine.

Through peace to light.

—Adelaide A. Proctor.
